

STACY TURNER

Project Consultant

Selected Previous Career Highlights

- 20 years of experience in municipal parks and recreation in the communities of Blue Ash, OH, Carlsbad, CA, and the City of Lakewood, CO
- Strong project and operational management expertise
- Specific programming experience in facility planning, outdoor recreation, fitness/wellness, enrichment programs, youth sports and special events

Specific Examples of Agency Administration and Planning Experience

- Research and assessment of community data and operational management practices
- Coordination and implementation of neighborhood community planning processes for facility and program development issues
- Coordination of needs assessments and analyses for a variety of programs and projects
- Management of community involvement projects for low income housing participants
- Collaboration with legal advisors to author revised contractor service agreements
- Preparation and production of departmental budgets, final reports and agenda bills for Parks and Recreation Commissions and Boards
- Participation on architectural committees for recreation centers, including new build, renovation, and repurposing projects
- Transitioning of programs and responsibilities from a park and recreation district to a city government
- Successful completion of grant research applications, grant monitoring and final report analyses
- Management and regional training for two Federal Housing Authority youth sports grants
- Supervision of large and small departments, including staff, instructors, contractors, interns, and volunteers

Formal Education

- Bachelor of Arts, Recreation Administration, San Diego State University, 1990

Memberships and Public Speaking

- Professional Member and Speaker, Colorado Parks and Recreation Association
- Speaker - National Parks and Recreation Association, At Risk Youth Colloquium, 1996
- California Parks and Recreation Society, Intern Coordinator, 1990